

In one of the pirate movies, a character who desired to marry the female lead¹, said of his unrequited love, “Our destinies have been entwined, Elizabeth, but never joined.” We all know how vines twist around anything they can in their effort to climb. The sad thing is that many in the church suffer the same problem; they “circle” around Christ, but they never actually make contact. This communion is a time to “join” the vine (which is Christ), and thus have a complete relationship that nourishes us for all time.

1. “Our destinies have been entwined Elizabeth, but never joined.” The character James Norrington, in the movie Pirates of the Caribbean – At World’s End