182. 040321 Was there a Book of the Covenant before God gave Moses the tablets of stone with the ten Commandments written on them?
 When Moses went and told the people all the Lord's words and laws, they responded with one voice, "Everything the LORD said we will do." Moses then wrote down everything the LORD had said. Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, "We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey." Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words." The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commands I have written for their instruction."

Exodus 24:3-4, 7-8, 12

183. 040328 Many times the thought of the presence of the Lord made an enemy's heart melt. Where did it inspire the enemy to be strong and fight harder (and win)? Eli's sons brought the ark of the covenant to the camp, and all Israel raised such a great shout that the ground shook. When the Philistines learned that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp, they were afraid. "We're in trouble! Nothing like this has happened before. Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? They are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the desert. Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be subject to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men, and fight!" So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers. 1 Samuel 4:4-10
