

The Tenth Leper Comm Comm

Soozie's father was an ear, nose, and throat doctor. In his earlier days before he became a specialist he was in general practice and probably saved several people's lives. But none of these instances was more outstanding than when he met a grown woman one day who told him that he had saved her life the day she was born and she would not be alive without him. He had had to make the terrible decision in a difficult birth to save the mother, who was failing, or the baby, who represented a new beginning.

Do those that are saved really know what was done for them? Soozie's dad encountered someone who did. But how many others were there? And in this Communion that is what we are doing: showing recognition of our Savior and how He has saved us. I am reminded of the one leper out of ten who returned to thank Christ for healing him<sup>1</sup>. We are the tenth leper! This helps me understand how Christ feels when we worship Him for it.
