

We talk about Christ being the mediator because we are not worthy to stand by ourselves before God. But I know that I am not worthy to stand before Christ either. A mystery, except for Grace. As I consider all of this, I realize that I am not worthy to stand before the congregation, either.

But even though I pray to God anyway, I also pray to Christ, who intercedes for me. And in essence I am praying to you that we all consider the tremendous sacrifice of the truly worthy Christ that saves us from our sins.

© Copyright Heard Lowry, 2011